

1. Was there a coordinated system of activities among JACL chapters with respect to pre-war activities, i.e., anti-Axis, Defense League, and if so, what was the nature and degree of the coordination?
2. What was the relation between JACL and government entities during the pre-war period? Who initiated the first contacts and what was the nature of those contacts?
3. What was the underlying motivation and principles which shaped JACL's relationships with government entities?
4. Was JACL involved in anyway in suggesting, supporting or encouraging "evacuation"?
5. Did JACL's relationship with government entities involve any issues of threat, promises, expectations, incentives, and if so, what were the nature of such?
6. What was the role of the JACL in the development and implementation of all of the questionnaires? What role did JACL play in instructing, advising individuals how to respond?
7. Clarify JACL's position with respect to the test cases and how that position may have changed over time.
8. Are you aware of any exploitation of issues by JACLers/Nisei prior to evacuation? If so, what was the extent of the exploitation? Were any efforts made by JACL to curtail the exploitation?
9. What was the extent of JACL influence in shaping WRA policies? Did WRA check off with JACL prior to policy decisions. What policy areas commanded the greatest attention by JACL?
10. What was the extent, nature and consequences of "stooging" activities in camp, and by whom? Was it a JACL strategy?
11. What did JACL see as its role in the camps? What may have impeded its success? Did JACL rise to power under self-government in camp? If so, explain. If not, why not?
12. What was JACL's attitude toward draft resisters? Did JACL cause ACLU to refuse assistance to resisters?
13. What was the extent of JACL's role in the process of "segregation"?
14. What was JACL's definition of "loyalty" and what were the variables critical to the definition?
15. The allegation is made that JACL suggested the process of "branding". Was such a suggestion made and if so, what were the background thoughts and intentions for the suggestion.
16. Who/what asked JACL to conduct the Kibei survey.